Did you know when we support and connect with one another we are providing hope and using key protective factors that actually help prevent child abuse and neglect?

Connect with us for a week-long webinar and town hall series to learn how you can be a connection in your community. Join us Monday, October 19, through Thursday, October 22, from 1:00-2:00PM for conversations on The Protective Factor of The Day and "Why Connections Matter" with faith leaders, community members, and certified Connections Matter trainers.

Friday, October 23rd from 10:00-11:00AM we will discuss the final Protective Factor and wrap up with a Facebook Town Hall Forum from 11:00AM-12:00PM featuring faith leaders and experts from North Carolina communities.
